

Cohn-Haddow

Center for Judaic Studies

The Pearl A. and George M. Zeltzer Lecture on Women and Judaism

BUDGETS, BOYCOTTS AND BABIES: JEWISH WOMEN IN THE GREAT DEPRESSION

The Great Depression presented Jewish women with a unique set of challenges and choices. In response, Jewish women found new survival strategies to cope with the difficult economic conditions and changing family dynamics of these turbulent years.

PROFESSOR BETH WENGER
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY,
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 2014 7PM
TEMPLE KOL AMI WEST BLOOMFIELD, MI

